CHAIRMAN AND PRINCIPAL OWNER

MARK ATTANASIO

The 2010 season is Mark Attanasio's sixth as Chairman and Principal Owner of the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club.

Seeking to maintain the momentum of fan excitement from last season - the second consecutive season in which Miller Park saw more than three million fans come through the turnstiles to root for the Brewers - Attanasio is continuing to work with team executives and staff to improve the Club's performance based on the four cornerstone pledges that he made six years ago to the Brewers fans and community:

1. TO FIELD A PERENNIALLY COMPETITIVE TEAM

Attanasio has worked closely with Executive Vice President & General Manager Doug Melvin, Vice President & Assistant General Manager Gord Ash and the entire baseball operations staff to make significant improvements on the field.

The Brewers have consistently sent multiple players to the All-Star Game, including last season's All-Stars Trevor Hoffman, Ryan Braun and Home Run Derby champion Prince Fielder. In 2009, Fielder also achieved an all-time Brewers franchise record of 141 RBI, which tied for the National League lead, while hitting 46 home runs, as the Brewers offense scored the third most runs in the NL, trailing only two playoff teams (Philadelphia and Colorado).

In addition, several key players were added this offseason, including free agents Randy Wolf, LaTroy Hawkins and Doug Davis, as well as trade acquisition Carlos Gomez, to position the team for a successful 2010 season.

2. TO DELIVER THE BEST FAN EXPERIENCE POSSIBLE - WHETHER AT MILLER PARK, THROUGH BROADCASTS OR OVER THE INTERNET

Last season, Brewers fans showed once again why they are widely considered among the best fans in baseball, when over three million of them came through Miller Park's turnstiles for a second year in a row. For 2010, Attanasio has approved several measures to maintain Miller Park's position as one of the best venues in sports as well as improvements for those fans who follow the team via its broadcasts or through the internet.

Renovations have already begun to create the new Brewers Team Store on the Terrace Level, which is modeled after last year's award-winning Team Store by Majestic on the Field Level. The new Plaza Pavilion is also being constructed in the right-field corner of the Field Level, and parking lots surrounding Miller Park will be renamed in tribute of some of the city's baseball greats, including the legendary Bob Uecker, with a special "Uecker Lot" which will make ten spaces available for $1.00 in "Uecker's Front Row" for every home game.

On the team's broadcasts, a high priority has been placed on expanding Brewers pre and post-game coverage as well as televising as many games as practical in high definition. Attanasio remains committed to improving Brewers.com, already one of the more frequently visited MLB sites, by placing continued emphasis on increasing the amount of original content, blogs and chats with players, managers and coaches, as well as top front office staff.

As instituted during Attanasio's tenure, Cerveceros Day, the Negro Leagues Tribute Day and other annual tributes remain highlights of the season. In addition, numerous special events will be created for the 2010 season to celebrate the Brewers' 40th Anniversary Season.

3. TO REMAIN A LEADER IN THE COMMUNITY

Attanasio continues to be personally involved in the growth and development of the Club's efforts in the community, which include a significant expansion in the scale and scope of the Brewers' community outreach.

In the past year, there have been two major announcements: the re-branding the Club's philanthropic arm as the Brewers Community Foundation and adding Cecelia Gore as the Foundation's Executive Director. The expanded program will redouble the Brewers' efforts to enhance the education, physical activity and welfare of the area's school-age population.

Plans for 2010 include a new 50/50 raffle at all home games, the expansion of the S.C.O.R.E. Program (with its core character principles of School, Community, Opportunities, Role Models, and Excellence), continued involvement with HOPSports (an interactive program that stresses overall well-being and sports-related skills) and much more.

4. TO REMAIN AN ORGANIZATION WHERE PEOPLE WANT TO WORK, WHETHER ON THE FIELD OR BEHIND THE SCENES

During Attanasio's six-year tenure, the Brewers have become a highly sought-after employer for free agents who seek to join the team, front office personnel, scouts, minor-league instructors, talent evaluators and those in the business side of baseball, particularly in the areas of customer service, marketing and community relations.

From the beginning, Attanasio has made it a key priority to foster a rewarding work environment, not only to attract and retain employees by providing career growth opportunities and training, but also to remain a leader in the community as a means to meet the goal of making the Brewers the best-run ballclub possible.

In addition to his role as Chairman and Principal Owner, Attanasio has been an accomplished finance executive over three decades. He serves on the Board of Directors of the TCW Group, Inc., a Los Angeles-based investment management firm with approximately $100 billion under management.

Attanasio holds positions on several not-for-profit boards, including Heal the Bay; an environmental group aimed at preserving the Pacific coastline; the Cedars-Sinai Medical Center Sports Spectacular; which funds the study of medical genetics and birth defects; the United Way of Milwaukee, the Greater Milwaukee Committee, Harvard-Westlake School and the President's Leadership Council of Brown University.

Attanasio is also an investor in the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League.

Attanasio received his A.B. from Brown University and his J.D. from the Columbia University School of Law.

Mark and his wife, Debbie, have two sons.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT - BUSINESS OPERATIONS

RICK SCHLESINGER

Named Executive Vice President - Business Operations on December 12, 2002, Rick Schlesinger recently completed his seventh season with the Brewers. Schlesinger oversees the Club's business affairs, including sponsorships, marketing, ticket sales, guest services, public relations, community relations, broadcasting and communications.

Since Schlesinger joined the Brewers, attendance for home games has increased 80%, from 1.7 million in 2003 (25th in MLB) to the franchise record of nearly 3.1 million (9th in MLB) achieved during the 2008 season. During the recently-completed 2009 season, the Brewers virtually equaled that number at the gate, drawing over three million fans for the second straight year. During this same period, season ticket sales have more than doubled and the Club's television ratings have increased by more than three hundred percent.

Under Schlesinger's guidance, the Club has enhanced the fan experience at Miller Park on numerous fronts. Projects from 2009 included construction of the Harley-Davidson Deck, Kalahari Splash Zone and 2008 Brewers Party Suite along with complete renovations of the Brewers Team Store by Majestic, all of Miller Park's 43 Club Level Suites and Miller Park function rooms. This past winter, upgrades included the building of a statue honoring MLB Commissioner and former Brewers Owner Bud Selig and complete renovations of the Milwaukee Braves Honor Roll display and Terrace Level Team Store. Other recent projects have included construction of the new Home Plate Team Store, NYCE Stadium Club (formerly known as Metavante Club), Associated Bank Kids Zone, 1982 Brewers and 1957 Braves Party Suites, AirTran Airways Landing Zone and Gehl Club.

Schlesinger has placed a very high priority on consistently improving the fan experience at Miller Park, and his efforts have been well received. In recent years, the Brewers and Miller Park have been recognized by both fans and media in annual polling and surveys.

The recognition peaked in 2009 when the team was named one of five finalists for the Sports Business Journal's "Professional Sports Team of the Year" award, while Forbes Magazine named the Brewers as one of Major League Baseball's "Hottest Brands" for 2009. In addition, ESPN the Magazine placed the Brewers seventh out of 122 major league sports franchises - and second among all Major League Baseball teams - in its "Ultimate Franchise Rankings" fan survey. Finally, in the two most recent SI.com "Fan Value Index" surveys, the Brewers achieved top marks for the entire Miller Park experience as voted on by both media and fans.

Under Schlesinger's leadership, the Brewers have expanded their reach into the community. Most significantly, the organization re-branded its Brewers Community Foundation, Inc. philanthropic arm this past winter and created several new impact initiatives to continue building fundraising efforts to benefit area causes. In addition, recent efforts have included the creation of the S.C.O.R.E. program (a school program and curriculum that focuses on character education) and the Brewers Block Parties (carnival-style events that take place in multiple locations throughout Southeastern Wisconsin).

> "From the tailgating to the sausage mascot races to the wide selection of food and beer, Miller Park is a model of customer-relations success."
> SI.COM's Fan Value Index

On the corporate marketing front, Schlesinger and the Brewers have significantly expanded their reach in recent years. Since 2005 alone, sponsorship revenue has increased 70%, and the total number of Brewers sponsors/partners has doubled.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Schlesinger served as the Vice President, Business and Legal Affairs/Assistant General Manager for the Anaheim Angels from 1998-2002 after coming to Anaheim Sports, Inc. (ASI) from Walt Disney Pictures and Television. Schlesinger handled all contract and legal matters for ASI, the Angels and the NHL's Mighty Ducks, and worked on all contractual and arbitration issues for the baseball club.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1983, Schlesinger received his Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School (Cum Laude) in 1986. After graduating from Harvard, Schlesinger spent six years at the Los Angeles law firm of Latham and Watkins before joining Disney.

Active in the community, Schlesinger serves on the boards of the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Wisconsin, the YMCA and the Wisconsin Sports Development Corporation, and is a member of the Greater Milwaukee Committee that contributes to the cultural and economic base of the Milwaukee Metropolitan area.

Schlesinger is a native of Bayside, Wisconsin. He and his wife, Diane, reside in River Hills, Wisconsin with their daughter, Caitlin, sons Bradley and Sam, cat Cooper and two dogs, Roxy and Scout.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT - FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

BOB QUINN

Bob Quinn, with over 16 years of experience in professional baseball, begins his eighth season in a senior business executive role with the Brewers.

Quinn joined the Brewers on January 3, 2003 as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer before being promoted to Executive Vice President - Finance and Administration on July 19, 2007. A fourth generation baseball executive, Quinn oversees the financial operations of the Brewers as well as human resources, information systems, Miller Park operations, Arizona spring training operations and business administration.

Quinn plays a lead role in creating the annual and long-range business and financial plan for the Brewers that has allowed the team to stay competitive on the field and provided the resources to continuously enhance the fan experience at Miller Park. He was instrumental in the creation of new fan enhancements at Miller Park as well as significant changes in game entertainment, ticket packages and promotions. Quinn also initiated several programs that have been critical to the Brewers customer service practices. In 2007, he began the "Trading Places" program, where team management worked on the frontlines as concession workers, parking attendants, ticket takers, ushers and ballpark maintenance workers to sample the experience from the perspective of both event staff and fans. The past three years, he has led the "Fans First" effort, with Brewers front office executives randomly awarding fans each night with ticket upgrades, autographed items and once-in-a-lifetime entertainment experiences.

In 2008 and 2009, the Brewers posted significant gains in nearly all areas of the business operations. Under Quinn's leadership, the team established a franchise attendance record of over three million fans each year, and posted increased sales and revenue in merchandise, concessions and team sponsorships. With these gains, the Brewers in 2009 were named a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's "Professional Sports Team of the Year" award. The team also placed at or near the top in multiple other fan, media and industry surveys from 2005 through 2009.

Prior to coming to Milwaukee, Quinn spent nine years with the San Francisco Giants from 1994-2002, last serving as Vice President of Finance. He served in many capacities and contributed in all areas of the business throughout his tenure. He also played an instrumental role in the private financing and construction of AT&T Park.

Quinn graduated from Marquette University in 1990 with a degree in accounting and worked for the public accounting firm Price Waterhouse in Milwaukee and San Francisco before joining the Giants.

In addition to his accomplishments, Quinn continues a family legacy and influence in professional baseball, and in professional sports, as a member of one of the game's most celebrated multi-generational families. Covering over 275 combined years of experience, tradition and dedication to professional sports and professional baseball, Quinn comes from a long line of front office sports executives. His father, Robert E. Quinn, was general manager for the San Francisco Giants, New York Yankees and Cincinnati Reds (including the 1990 World Champions). Quinn's grandfather, John Quinn, was general manager of the Boston and Milwaukee Braves (including the 1957 World Champions) and of the Philadelphia Phillies. His great grandfather, J.A. Quinn, was general manager for the St. Louis Browns, Brooklyn Dodgers, Boston Red Sox and Boston Braves, and served as the first curator of the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York.

Quinn's honors and awards include being named as Milwaukee's "2008 CFO of the Year" by the Business Journal. In January 2007, Quinn was honored with the Young Alumnus Award, conferred through the College of Business Administration of Marquette University. In 2005, he was named to The Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" list, a prestigious honor bestowed upon those who demonstrate leadership and accomplishments in their profession and community.

Quinn serves as Vice President and Treasurer of the Brewers Community Foundation, Inc., the Club's recently re-branded philanthropic arm which provides financial and other support for youth recreation, scholarships and education throughout Wisconsin. He is also a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and serves as a mentor to college students in the area.

Quinn has played lead guitar in several rock bands, culminating in appearances at Milwaukee's Summerfest Music Festival in each of the last three years.

Quinn is a native of Cleveland, Ohio, and resides in Brookfield, Wisconsin with his wife Amy and their two daughters, Carolyn and Katie.

VICE PRESIDENT–HUMAN RESOURCES AND OFFICE MANAGEMENT

SALLY ANDRIST

Sally Andrist is in her seventh season with the Brewers. She joined the team in 2004 as Director of Human Resources and Office Management. On November 1, 2005, she was named Senior Director of Human Resources and Office Management, and then promoted to her current position on October 18, 2007.

Andrist is responsible for all human resources activities, including recruitment of seasonal and regular employees for office and event staff, managing employee benefits programs, employee relations, policy administration, workers compensation and other compliance-related duties.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Andrist worked in human resources for Smiths Medical from April 2000 to April 2004 and with Guaranty Bank from August 1987 to March 2000.

Andrist attained Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) certification through the Society of Human Resource Management in May 2003.

Andrist, a native of Le Sueur, Minnesota, graduated from Mankato State University with a degree in industrial relations and business. She and her husband, Syd, reside in Menomonee Falls with their daughters Kati and Kari.

VICE PRESIDENT–COMMUNICATIONS

TYLER BARNES

Tyler Barnes, 45, is in his fifth season with the Brewers after joining the organization on September 26, 2005.

In his role, Barnes oversees efforts related to media relations, community relations, broadcasting, publications and brewers.com. He also serves on the board of the Brewers Community Foundation, Inc.

A veteran of 23 years in the sports industry, Barnes came to Milwaukee after five years in Phoenix with the Harlem Globetrotters, where he most recently served as Chief Marketing Officer. In that role, he coordinated sales and marketing efforts related to the team's annual 230-game tour.

His prior experience includes six years with the Detroit Tigers and another five with the Houston Astros in marketing and communications roles. He was named Michigan's Best of the Best by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association for his work in public relations with the Tigers.

His recent community work includes serving on the boards of VISIT Milwaukee and The American Red Cross Grand Canyon Chapter.

Barnes graduated from Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut in 1987 with a degree in political science. He is a native of Kansas City, Missouri.

Born on January 15, 1965, Barnes and his wife, Monica, reside in Elm Grove, Wisconsin with their sons Avery and Cole.

VICE PRESIDENT-BREWERS ENTERPRISES

JASON HARTLUND

Jason Hartlund, 37, is in his fifth season with the Brewers, having joined the organization on November 28, 2005. He was named to his current role on May 6, 2008. Hartlund is responsible for generating non-baseball revenue for the team, which includes non-gameday use of Miller Park facilities such as Helfaer Field, the NYCE Stadium Club, the Gehl Club, the parking lots and the many meeting rooms throughout the ballpark.

The Club is pleased to give back to dedicated fans that have supported the Brewers throughout the years. Each year, many charities, educational groups, youth groups, and non-profit organizations raise hundreds of thousands of dollars through the support of players and auction items provided by the Milwaukee Brewers. By supporting charitable causes, the Brewers exercise our continued pledge to be an active member in the community, as well as make meaningful differences in people's lives.

AUCTION REQUESTS

The Milwaukee Brewers Community Relations Department provided nearly 21,000 promotional items and autographed merchandise to assist organizations with their fundraising efforts last year. Although we make a great effort to support many programs and events, we first focus on and provide for those non-profit organizations in the Wisconsin area. It is not possible to honor out-of-state requests because we receive so many of them and resources are limited.

Donation requests must be submitted in writing at least 45 days in advance of your event, and all requests must be accompanied by an IRS Letter of Determination or other documentation that demonstrates an organization's non-profit status. Questions should be directed to the Community Relations Hotline at (414) 902-4800.

They speak to students about the importance of school and community, taking advantage of opportunities, seeking positive role models and striving for excellence in education. Key to the presentation is the use of five baseballs in interactive exchanges with students. Each ball is designed with one of the S.C.O.R.E. character messages printed on the side. During the program, the players engage children in a dialogue about the importance of these five important elements. It is a fun program that opens communication between the children and their role models. In addition, all students participating in the program receive a t-shirt, game tickets and a bookmark to remember the day.

In 2007, the Milwaukee Brewers and Brewers Charities teamed up with an educational product line to develop a 24-page S.C.O.R.E. with Character agenda supplement. The S.C.O.R.E. with Character agenda supplement is flexible. It can be done in a few months or over a year. The entire effort is targeted at positively impacting student behavior and student character development. Supplements are available to schools now. To help drive student interest in the program, the Brewers will donate a family four-pack of game tickets to participating schools to be used as a student reward. EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

DOUG MELVIN

Doug Melvin was named Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Milwaukee Brewers on September 26, 2002. He is the eighth general manager in Brewers history. Following the 2008 season, he signed a contract extension that will keep him in Milwaukee through 2012.

This past offseason, Melvin acquired veteran pitchers Randy Wolf, Doug Davis and LaTroy Hawkins along with catcher Gregg Zaun via free agency. He also acquired a young, energetic centerfielder in Carlos Gomez via trade with the Minnesota Twins. In addition, Melvin was able to re-sign Trevor Hoffman, Major League Baseball's all-time saves leader.

Melvin has dramatically overhauled the Brewers' roster during his time as general manager, helping to bring the franchise its first postseason berth in 26 years in 2008. The 2008 season also marked the second consecutive winning record for the team as the Brewers finished 90-72, good enough to capture the National League Wild Card. Melvin's midseason acquisition of CC Sabathia via trade with the Cleveland Indians was key to the 2008 postseason run and will go down as perhaps the biggest trade in team history.

Melvin was also able to ink one of the Brewers' young stars, Ryan Braun, to a multi-year deal during that 2008 season. Already one of the top players in the game, Braun is signed through the 2015 season, marking the longest contract in franchise history.

In 2007, the team posted its first winning record since 1992 as they went 83-79 and finished just 2.0 games behind the Cubs in the National League Central. That offseason, Melvin added a number of veterans who played key roles in the run to the postseason, a group that included Mike Cameron, Jason Kendall and Salomon Torres.

Melvin oversees one of the strongest player development systems in baseball. The farm system has produced a number of players under his tenure who have contributed to the Major League team. Braun, selected in the first round of the 2005 First-Year Player Draft, is a two-time All-Star and was named 2007 National League Rookie of the Year. Prince Fielder, selected in the first round of the 2002 First-Year Player Draft, is also a two-time All-Star and has finished in the top four in National League MVP voting in two of the last three seasons (third in 2007, fourth in 2009).

Last season, six players in the Opening Day lineup were signed and developed through the farm system, including current Brewers Braun, Fielder, Rickie Weeks and Corey Hart. This season, the team will turn to shortstop Alcides Escobar, who was signed as a non-drafted free agent in 2003. Escobar has moved up through the farm system to be one of the brightest young talents in the game.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Melvin, 57, was the successful general manager of the Texas Rangers from 1996-2001. He helped the Rangers earn their first postseason appearance ever in 1996. Under his direction, the team won the American League West three times. Melvin was hired in Texas by former President George W. Bush and former United States Ambassador to Japan, Tom Schieffer.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS
MILLER PARK

The Milwaukee Brewers take pride in offering the best overall experience for every fan who attends a game. Central to the quality of the fan experience is Milwaukee's jewel of a ballpark, Miller Park.

Over the past six years, the Brewers fan experience has received honors from both fans and media in annual polling and surveys. In their most recent polling (summer, 2009), ESPN the Magazine placed the Brewers seventh out of 122 major league franchises in their “Ultimate Franchise Rankings” fan survey, up from 13th in 2008. In 2009, Team Marketing Report stated in their annual “Fan Cost Index” survey that the Brewers ranked as the fifth-most affordable fan experience in Major League Baseball.

One of the keys to Miller Park's popularity is that it is a dynamic facility that has adapted to changing fan tastes in its nine seasons. During the 2009 offseason, improvements were made to the Brewers Team Store on the Terrace Level and the Milwaukee Braves Wall of Honor on the Field Level. Additionally, an outdoor “Plaza Pavilion” was constructed in the right-field corner of the Field Level. Year in and year out, the Brewers continue to make updates to Miller Park that make it one of the best ballparks in Major League Baseball and a major destination in the city of Milwaukee and state of Wisconsin.

Other recent improvements at Miller Park include the new Brewers Team Store by Majestic (2009), the renovation of 43 Club Level suites (2009), the Harley-Davidson Deck (2009), the renovation of the “NYCE Stadium Club” (2008), the Associated Bank Kids Zone (2008), the “Gehl Club” (2007) and the AirTran Airways Landing Zone (2007).

Miller Park's debut dates to April 6, 2001, a day that the people of Wisconsin and fans of Major League Baseball will remember for many years to come. In front of the President of the United States, the Commissioner of Baseball and many more dignitaries, the Milwaukee Brewers and Cincinnati Reds christened Miller Park in a thrilling game culminating with a game-winning home run from Richie Sexson in the bottom of the eighth inning.

On that day, President George W. Bush became the first sitting president to attend a professional sporting event in the State of Wisconsin. He, along with Baseball Commissioner, Allan H. (Bud) Selig, threw out ceremonial first pitches prior to the game. This was just the first of many wonderful events that have already taken place in the Brewers new home.

In its inaugural season, Miller Park was not only the home to Brewers baseball. While the team was away, the park played host to a pair of major concerts, the George Strait Country Music Festival in May and a show by the band N'Sync in July. Both concerts drew more than 34,000 fans each and earned rave reviews from the performers and fans alike.

That was just the beginning. The Brewers continued to make Miller Park the home for a wide variety of events in 2002. The ballpark hosted the 73rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game, Milwaukee's third All-Star contest and its first since 1975.

In 2003, legendary rocker Bruce Springsteen brought his E Street Band to Miller Park for the first time for a memorable performance in front of more than 30,000 fans. The ballpark has also hosted the filming of the motion picture "Mr. 3000," starring the late Bernie Mac and Angela Bassett, The Miller Lite Masters Professional Bowlers Association Finals and one of the midwest’s largest youth chess tournaments.

In August 2005, Miller Park played host to the 150th birthday party for its namesake, the Miller Brewing Company. A mini-village was built on the field along with a stage where rocker Bon Jovi played to a capacity crowd. And in 2008, H.O.G. (the Harley Owners Group) celebrated its 25th Anniversary with a spectacular rally of 45,000 motorcycle enthusiasts and a concert featuring Kid Rock in the Miller Park parking lots.

On Saturday, October 4, 2008, the ballpark played host to its first ever postseason game. A frenzied sellout crowd of 43,992 watched the Brewers defeat the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-1, in Game 3 of the NLDS. Hall of Fame Brewers Broadcaster Bob Uecker threw out the ceremonial first pitch to a thunderous roar.

Miller Park has drawn over 22 million visitors in its first nine seasons, including over three million fans in each of the last two seasons. That was highlighted by a record 3,068,458 for Brewers baseball in 2008, which shattered the all-time Milwaukee baseball record for attendance. Last season, the ballpark sold out 27 times and the Brewers ranked ninth in attendance in Major League Baseball.

Miller Park has been a significant cog in the resurgence of Milwaukee as a tourist destination. Along with the Calatrava wing of the Milwaukee Art Museum, the Midwest Airlines Convention Center, Milwaukee Public Market and the Harley-Davidson Museum, Miller Park has helped put Milwaukee on the map as a place to visit any time of year.

TOURS

Experience the magnificence of Miller Park while enjoying an exclusive tour that includes a number of behind-the-scenes attractions. Daily tours run from April through September and cover more than one-half mile and 70 minutes. All tours are wheelchair accessible.

Groups of 20 or more must make reservations at least two weeks in advance. Admission for the Miller Park tour is $10.00 for adults and $6.00 for children 12 and under and senior citizens. Special rates are also available for youth groups.

Tours are not offered when the Brewers play day games at Miller Park. For more information on tours, including times, please call the Miller Park Tour Hotline at (414) 902-4005.

MILLER PARK WALK OF FAME

The Miller Park Walk of Fame commemorates some of the greatest names in Milwaukee baseball history. It is located on the plaza area outside the ballpark by the statues of Robin Yount and Hank Aaron. Each inductee is honored with a granite-shaped home plate set in the ground.

Started in Miller Park's inaugural season of 2001, the Walk of Fame has welcomed 15 inductees going into the 2010 season. The first class of Walk-of-Famers in 2001 included Hank Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Paul Molitor and Robin Yount.

Beginning in 2006, balloting changed to follow the National Baseball Hall of Fame guidelines with candidates needing 75% of the vote for election. In 2007, former Milwaukee Braves players were added to the ballot in an effort to honor the strong baseball tradition of the city. The first year, Eddie Mathews, Warren Spahn and former general manager John Quinn were elected.

In 2010, the Brewers will induct former Milwaukee Braves pitcher Lew Burdette to the Walk of Fame.

HELFAER FIELD: WISCONSIN'S PREMIER YOUTH BASEBALL FACILITY

The Milwaukee Brewers joined with the Southeast Wisconsin Professional Baseball Park District Board and the Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation to build Helfaer Field, the home of Wisconsin's finest youth baseball facility. Designed by Eppstein-Uhen Architects of Milwaukee, Helfaer Field was built on the site of County Stadium by Hunzinger Construction, the company that built the original County Stadium, and was a part of the team that built beautiful Miller Park.

The $3.1 million facility was built with the help of a $2 million charitable grant from the Helfaer Foundation as well as $1.1 million from the Miller Park infrastructure budget.

Featuring 502 bleacher seats and additional concourse seating of 220, this is the premier location for youth baseball and softball leagues to host their championship games and tournaments. The fences reach 200 feet with walls six feet high with the exception of left field, where the wall is nine feet. The playing surface of Helfaer Field was also replaced in October 2008, giving Little Leaguers the same playing surface that the big leaguers play on inside Miller Park.

The foul poles of County Stadium have been used at Helfaer Field and the area where home plate existed in the old ballpark has been memorialized on the third-base concourse.

The Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation was founded on February 2, 1974 and is dedicated to charitable, religious and educational purposes in Wisconsin and the greater Milwaukee area. Mr. Helfaer was also an original investor in the Brewers.

Children from the three Brewers primary youth baseball leagues were on hand in August 2001 to turn the dirt at the groundbreaking ceremony. The Little Brewers League, Girls of Summer Softball League and the Brewers RBI (Reviving Baseball in the Inner-City) are the three avenues the Brewers offer children from ages 6-17 to play softball and baseball in Wisconsin with over 3,000 taking part statewide. Helfaer Field opened on May 31, 2002 and has been used by hundreds of teams and thousands of children since its inception.

Helfaer Field is available for organized athletic events. The emphasis is primarily to make Helfaer Field available for youth baseball (5-12) and girls softball. However, Helfaer Field is also available for other groups and uses as well.

On non-Brewers home game dates, there will be up to six time slots of two hours each available for rental. On Brewers home dates, there will be up to three time slots at two hours each and is available for tailgate functions up to three hours prior to game days.

For more information on Helfaer Field reservations check out the club's website at brewers.com or call the Helfaer Field coordinator at (414) 902-4888.

SUNDAYS AT HELFAER

Beginning May 16, the Milwaukee Brewers will again offer fans a free chance to enjoy Helfaer Field. Helfaer Field Sundays gives fans of all ages a chance to enjoy baseball's premier youth baseball facility. The ballpark opens 2 1/2 hours prior to the Brewers first pitch and remains open until game time on all Sundays when the Brewers play at Miller Park during the 2010 season. Kids and adults alike can go out and throw the ball around in the outfield at Helfaer Field. Bats are not allowed.

MASCOTS

Perhaps as much a part of Milwaukee's rich baseball history as the players, Bernie Brewer has become a symbol of what's good about being a fan of the Brewers.

As the official mascot of the Brewers, Bernie Brewer entertains fans young and old from his dugout located in the left-field bleachers.

THE HISTORY OF BERNIE BREWER

The concept of a team mascot first emerged back in 1970 when the expansion team needed to draw more fans to the ballpark. That season, the original "Bernie Brewer," 69-year-old Milt Mason, camped out in a trailer atop the scoreboard in late June, vowing not to come down until a crowd of at least 40,000 attended a game. On August 16, a bat day crowd of 44,387 showed up to bring their adopted hero down from his perch.

The demand for Bernie Brewer grew, and by 1973 he emerged as a character who cheered on the home team from a beer-barreled chalet. He would slide down from his perch into a beer stein following each Brewers home run and victory. Bernie Brewer became a fixture at home games through the Brewers' powerful years, when home runs came with regularity for teams known as "Bambi's Bombers" and "Harvey's Wallbangers."

In 1984, the Brewers rebuilt the bleachers, replacing Bernie's Chalet with a sound tower, sending the mascot into temporary retirement. In 1993, by popular demand, Bernie made a triumphant return and has been a fixture at every home game since.

RACING SAUSAGES

Legend has it that the Famous Klement's Racing Sausages started to take shape in the early 90s. In their formative years, they were little more than a cartoon running a virtual race every home game on the giant scoreboard in center field at County Stadium.

As the movement began to take shape and a buzz developed about our racing weenies, eventually the Bratwurst (#1), Polish (#2) and Italian (#3) made their debuts out of the left-field corner of County Stadium on selected Sundays throughout the season. What started as a fun way to entertain many of the children attending afternoon games became an instant hit. The three sausages added a fourth when Hot Dog (#4) came on board in the middle of the 1990s.

The race grew in popularity among young and old alike. During the 2000 season -- the final year of County Stadium -- the virtual race was thrown out and the actual sausages began to race every game.

This tradition continued as the Brewers moved across the parking lot to Miller Park in 2001. Running with the Sausages took on a life of its own as having an 'in' with the club might mean the chance to dive into the costume and scurry along the warning track prior to the seventh inning. Hideo Nomo, Pat Meares and Geoff Jenkins are just three of the lucky players to boast "Racing Sausage" among their personal accolades.

In 2007, Chorizo (#5) permanently joined the Racing Sausages after a one-game debut in 2006.

LETT IT BE

Trevor Hoffman was originally drafted by the Reds as an infielder in 1989. He spent two seasons in the minor leagues and batted .228 with 3 HR and 43 RBI in 164 games at Billings (1989) and Charleston (1990). Though not prolific at the plate, Hoffman showed a strong arm as he played shortstop in 1990. Jim Lett, who was Hoffman's manager at Charleston, recommended that he try pitching. Hoffman, who had not even pitched in high school, became a full-time pitcher at Cedar Rapids in 1991. He posted a 1.87 ERA with 12 saves in 27 appearances that season and found himself in the Major Leagues by 1993.

The rest is history.

Note: Jim Lett now serves as the bullpen coach for the Washington Nationals.

Trevor Hoffman owns a career save percentage of 89.3 (591-for-662), which ranks second in Major League history of anyone with at least 300 opportunities. He trails only Mariano Rivera (526-for-588, 89.5). The breakdown:

MILWAUKEE BREWERS

LOGO HISTORY

Seattle Pilots (1969)
The Seattle Pilots used this logo for one season before moving to Milwaukee and becoming the Brewers.

Milwaukee Brewers (1970-1977)
The “Barrel Man” logo was the first identity used by the Brewers. It was first used by the original American Association Brewers in the 1940s.

Milwaukee Brewers (1978-1993)
The “ball-in-glove” logo was introduced in 1978 after a contest which was open to the public drew more than 2,000 entries. An Art History student at UW-Eau Claire, Tom Meindel, designed the logo that went on to be the winner. The design of the logo was meant to be recognizable on items as small as a button and as large as a billboard.

Milwaukee Brewers (1994-1999)
As the Brewers celebrated their 25th anniversary in Milwaukee, they introduced a new look. Green was incorporated as a color for the first time in franchise history. The logo resembled an industrial stamp, paying homage to Milwaukee’s industrial history, and gave the team a modern yet old-fashioned look.

Milwaukee Brewers (2000-Present)
The current logo was introduced during the final season at County Stadium, giving the team a fresh look heading into Miller Park. The classy yet contemporary look was created by McDill Design of Milwaukee along with Major League Baseball Creative Services. The barley in the logo speaks to the heritage of the Brewers name that has been in Milwaukee baseball since 1901.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS

ALL-TIME ROSTER

The Milwaukee Brewers have had 668 players who have worn their colors since 1970. In addition, there have been 30 players who played for the Brewers' forefathers, the Seattle Pilots, in 1969, but not for the Brewers. A total of 698 players have appeared in at least one game for the franchise.

RETIRED NUMBERS

HANK AARON

Born: 2/5/34 in Mobile, AL
Position: Outfield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1954-65, 75-76

"Hammerin' Hank" had his number retired after the conclusion of the 1976 season. Aaron played in Milwaukee from 1954-65 with the Braves and from 1975-76 with the Brewers. He was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1982 after closing out his career with a Major League-record 755 home runs. Aaron was the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957, the year the Braves won the World Series. He hit 40 or more home runs in eight seasons, drove in 100 or more runs 16 times and had a .305 lifetime batting average.

ROLLIE FINGERS

Born: 8/25/46 in Steubenville, OH
Position: Pitcher
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1981-85

The man who made the handlebar mustache famous had his number "34" retired in ceremonies at County Stadium on August 9, 1992. Fingers, who was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1992, spent five seasons in a Brewers uniform. He made his mark on the baseball world as the game's first relief ace. Fingers won both the American League Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards in 1981, the first pitcher to accomplish the feat since Oakland's Vida Blue in 1971.

ROBIN YOUNT

Born: 9/16/55 in Danville, IL
Position: Shortstop/Outfield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1974-93

"The Kid" had his number "19" retired in ceremonies at County Stadium on May 29, 1994. Yount played his entire 20-year career with the Brewers after breaking into the big leagues at the tender age of 18. He won American League Most Valuable Player awards in 1982 and 1989, becoming the third player in Major League history to capture MVP honors at two different positions (Stan Musial/Hank Greenberg). Yount, who collected 3,142 career hits, was the first player to enter the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a Brewer after being inducted on July 25, 1999.

PAUL MOLITOR

Born: 8/22/56 in St. Paul, MN
Position: Infield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1978-92

"The Ignitor" had his number "4" retired in ceremonies at County Stadium on July 11, 1999. During his speech prior to the game against the Minnesota Twins, Molitor said that should he be voted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, he would be honored to enter as a Milwaukee Brewer. Molitor followed through with that commitment as he became the second Brewer to be inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2004. Molitor's career in Milwaukee spanned 15 seasons and was highlighted by the 1982 World Series and a 39-game hitting streak in 1987.

JACKIE ROBINSON

Born: 1/31/19 in Cairo, GA
Position: Second Base
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in the Majors: 1947-56

The man who broke baseball's color barrier in 1947 as a Brooklyn Dodger had his number "42" retired by Major League Baseball in 1997. The Brewers honored Robinson in special pre-game ceremonies at County Stadium on July 18, 1997. Pitcher Scott Karl (1995-99) was the last Brewer to wear the number.

BOB UECKER

Born: 1/26/35 in Milwaukee, WI
Position: Catcher/Broadcaster
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1971-present

"Mr. Baseball" had his name placed among the Brewers' retired numbers at Miller Park in a ceremony on August 26, 2005. The ceremony commemorated Uecker's 50th year in baseball. Although Uecker never played for the Brewers, he did play six seasons in the majors for the Milwaukee Braves, Philadelphia Phillies, Atlanta Braves and St. Louis Cardinals before retiring in 1967. Former Brewers owner and current Major League Baseball Commissioner Bud Selig hired Uecker as an announcer in 1971, a position he has held ever since.

ADMISSION TO STADIUM

Enter through the South Dock located in the right-field corner on the Service Level at Miller Park. Credentials are available for pickup four (4) hours prior to game time. Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA) cards or working credentials issued by Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations or Major League Baseball are required for admittance. No other credential will be honored. All bags will be checked by security upon entrance to the park.

BOB BETTS PRESS BOX

The Bob Betts Press Box is located on the Loge Level behind home plate. The main press box, as well as the adjacent radio and television booths, have rolling windows that are either entirely open or entirely closed. The main press box is a smoke-free environment. There are seven radio and television booths that are reserved for both home and visiting announcers. A quiet work room is located immediately behind the press box and should be used during post-game by radio stringers to send sound. An elevator directly behind the press box will transport media directly to the Service Level. This elevator is reserved for media and first aid immediately after the game. The press box is equipped for wireless internet access as well as DSL. Information on accessing the wireless network is posted throughout the press box. The press box is a working area and should be treated as such. The press box is closed to scouts during the game.

CLUBHOUSES

The home clubhouse is located on the Service Level on the first-base side. The visiting clubhouse is located on the Service Level on the third-base side. Only properly credentialed media are allowed in the clubhouses. Media is allowed access beginning 3 1/2 hours prior to game time. All media must leave the clubhouse one hour prior to game time. Television cameras are not permitted in the clubhouse prior to the game without approval from the Brewers Media Relations Department. The training room, X-ray room, kitchen, weight room and video room are OFF LIMITS to media. The clubhouse area is closed during respective club's batting practice sessions. Still photographers are not allowed in the clubhouses without prior approval from the club's media relations staff. Media are not allowed to use cell phones in the clubhouse.

FIELD

Access to the playing field is available through the runways leading from the respective clubhouses or through the door to the right of the visitor's clubhouse. Only properly credentialed media are allowed on the field. Live or direct transmissions are permitted from the field until 30 minutes prior to game time. The Brewers Grounds Crew and Media Relations Department politely ask media to avoid standing on the grass.

MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM
The Media Interview Room, located across from the Brewers clubhouse, is a classroom-style facility that features telephone, internet and power service. The Media Interview Room seats 93 media members and contains mult boxes for radio and television usage.

MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICES
The Brewers Media Relations Offices are located in the press box at Miller Park. On non-game days, media can visit the offices by entering the Brewers main offices in the right-field corner of Miller Park and having the receptionist call up to the Media Relations Department.

PARKING
To access the parking area, take the Miller Park Way freeway exit off I-94. Exit Miller Park and circle around the ramp. The media parking area is in the Staff Lot (formerly the Phillies Lot) located just south of the South Dock entrance. Those with season credentials will receive a season parking pass. Those with single-game credentials will be placed on a list and should check in with a parking attendant at the lot. Parking is extremely limited and available on a first-come, first-serve basis. The Staff Lot is for working media only. Those abusing this policy will have their parking privileges and credentials revoked.

PHOTOGRAPHER INFORMATION
Photo wells are located on the first and third base sides on the field near the dugouts as well as behind home plate. There are also two photo wells located on the Club Level near sections 320 and 339. Dark room facilities are located on the Service Level across from the Brewers clubhouse. Internet lines are available for photographers to transmit their photographs electronically. Wireless internet is also available. Please see connection information posted in the press box.

POST-GAME ACCESS
The Brewers clubhouse is open 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game. At this time, the manager will be made available in the Media Interview Room. RADIO ANNOUNCERS

BOB UECKER

Entering his 40th year behind the mic as a Major League Baseball broadcaster for his hometown team calling play-by-play on WTMJ-Radio and the Brewers Radio Network, Bob Uecker will celebrate his 55th year in professional baseball in 2010.

Uecker earned the 2003 Ford C. Frick Award and will forever be recognized in Baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York. On July 27, 2003, he made one of the most memorable speeches in Hall of Fame induction history as he left his audience, including former President George H. Bush, in tears from laughter. Also in 2003, Uecker became a member of the Brewers Walk of Fame, located near home plate outside of Miller Park. He is one of only 15 people who has received this special honor entering 2010.

Affectionately known across the country as "Mr. Baseball," Uecker has completed 29 seasons as the club's number one announcer. Uecker is highly respected in the industry, having been inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 2001, where he joined such baseball broadcasting luminaries as Vin Scully, Mel Allen, Red Barber, Ernie Harwell and Jack Brickhouse, as well as other American icons such as Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Edward R. Murrow and Orson Welles.

Uecker has been named Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year five times during his career and was inducted into the Wisconsin Sports Hall of Fame in 1998.

His big break can be traced to a 1969 visit with Al Hirt, a renowned jazz trumpeter from New Orleans, which would alter Uecker's life forever. Hirt opened a small nightclub in Atlanta and asked Uecker to come on stage. Hirt was so impressed, he arranged an appearance for Uecker on the "Tonight Show," starring Johnny Carson. Uecker became one of Carson's favorite guests, making some 100 appearances before Carson retired in 1992. He also made appearances on the Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin shows, Late Night with David Letterman and as a guest host on Saturday Night Live.

Uecker became a national celebrity and the ABC Network took advantage of his popularity. He made appearances on "The Superstars" and "The Midnight Special," which opened the door for more high-profile appearances.

A versatile talent, Uecker's credits go far beyond guest appearances and play-by-play. In 1985, Uecker launched a television acting career as one of the stars of ABC's sitcom "Mr. Belvedere," which put 122 episodes into syndication. He also hosted two syndicated television shows, "Bob Uecker's Wacky World of Sports" and "Bob Uecker's War of the Stars." He was one of the Miller Lite All-Stars in popular commercials for Lite Beer from Miller. Uecker was cast as a radio announcer in the film "Major League," which was filmed at County Stadium, and the sequel, "Major League II."

His experience broadcasting Brewers games both on radio and television gained Uecker national recognition as he went on to serve as play-by-play announcer for ABC Sports coverage of Monday Night Baseball, the League Championship Series and the World Series.

Uecker's accomplishments are not limited to the electronic medium. A former catcher who spent six seasons in the Major Leagues, Bob authored a book entitled "Catcher In the Wry," a humorous look back on the years he spent with the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies. One of his career highlights as a player came in 1964, when he was a member of the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals.

Despite his national attention and success, Bob never forgot his roots. His philanthropic efforts benefit several local organizations, including the United Performing Arts Fund, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and Big Brothers/Big Sisters. In addition, Uecker is an advocate for organizations that battle cystic fibrosis and heart disease and is involved with the Wisconsin Department of Tourism. He also chairs the popular Bob Uecker Celebrity Fishing Tournament for the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

For his efforts, Uecker was inducted into the Wisconsin Performing Artists Hall of Fame in 1993. The Hall of Fame was established in 1983 to honor nationally and internationally known performing artists with Wisconsin ties. In 1994, he was elected to the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame. In January 1995, he earned the "Big B.A.T." Award from the Baseball Assistance Team at a dinner in New York City for his continuing support of former Major League stars who are in need of assistance.

CORY PROVUS

Cory Provus, 31, enters his second season with the Brewers as play-by-play announcer on WTMJ-AM and the Brewers Radio Network.

Provus began his Major League Baseball career in March of 2007 as the Chicago Cubs' pre and post-game show host. He also handled play-by-play duties, backing up Pat Hughes, and anchored the morning and afternoon drive sportscasts as a reporter for WGN-AM in Chicago.

In June of 2006, Provus was named the voice of the University of Alabama-Birmingham Blazers. At UAB, he handled radio play-by-play for football, men's basketball and baseball. He also hosted the weekly coaches radio and television shows. While at UAB, he was named the 2006 Radio Sportscaster of the Year by the Alabama Broadcasters Association.

Provus also has a variety of experience hosting studio shows, managing production and doing play-by-play for properties of International Sports Properties. Provus handled play-by-play for the Conference USA Football Championship game, the ACC Men's Basketball Tournament and play-by-play duties for Georgia Tech, Wake Forest and Virginia Tech baseball, football and basketball.

A graduate of the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University, Provus also worked at WAER-FM in Syracuse from 1996-2000, handling radio play-by-play and acting as studio host for Orange football, basketball and lacrosse.

A native of Highland Park, Ill., Provus resides in Milwaukee.

KENT SOMMERFELD

Kent Sommerfeld is in his 25th season as the producer of Milwaukee Brewers radio broadcasts. A Wisconsin native, he has acquired a wide range of experience during his tenure in the broadcasting field.

Sommerfeld has been the radio producer/director for the Marquette University radio network since 1990 and periodically fills in doing men's basketball play-by-play. He was named director of the Marquette basketball radio network in 1999 and does play-by-play for the Marquette University women's basketball radio broadcasts.

Sommerfeld attended the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, where he earned a degree in communications and broadcast journalism. While at Whitewater, Sommerfeld was the sports director of Cable TV-6, a wing of Whitewater's cable system, as well as the co-host of "Sports Chat," a sports talk show on WSUW-Radio.

In addition to his radio accolades, Sommerfeld has worked with ESPN's technical staff on several events in the midwest. He also worked at KRBC-TV, the NBC affiliate in Abilene, Texas, as a sports/news photojournalist.

TELEVISION ANNOUNCERS

BRIAN ANDERSON

Brian Anderson was named Brewers play-by-play announcer on January 10, 2007. He begins his fourth season as a Major League broadcaster.

For the past two seasons, he has been tabbed by TBS to do play-by-play for the network's coverage of the MLB Playoffs. In 2010, Anderson will add regular season TBS Sunday Game of the Week broadcasts to his resume, calling selected Sunday national games throughout the season. Anderson also does NCAA basketball play-by-play for ESPN. As a part of his work on the 2007 Brewers Preview Show, Anderson and the FS Wisconsin team were awarded a regional Emmy Award.

Anderson joined the Brewers from Golf Channel, where he worked as a play-by-play announcer from 2003-06. In his role there, he served as a host for a variety of the network's events, including the PGA and Nationwide Tours. Anderson also worked at Fox Sports Southwest, calling NCAA college basketball from 2002-07, and serving as a sideline reporter for the San Antonio Spurs from 1999-07, where he saw the Spurs win three NBA Championships.

From 1998-2000, Anderson handled Minor League and Little League Baseball telecasts for ESPN. He received his start in baseball with the San Antonio Missions, the Double-A affiliate of the San Diego Padres, serving as a radio/television play-by-play announcer from 1994-2003.

Anderson played catcher on the nationally-ranked baseball team at St. Mary's University (Texas) and graduated Cum Laude from the school in 1993 with a degree in English-communications. His brother, Mike Anderson, had a stint in the majors as a pitcher with the Cincinnati Reds (1993) and is currently a Major League scout in the Texas Rangers organization.

Anderson and his wife, Michele, and daughter, Maddy, live in Hartland, Wisconsin.

BILL SCHROEDER

Bill Schroeder returns for his 16th season as the color commentator on Brewers telecasts.

Popular with the fans, Schroeder began his career behind the mic as the Brewers' color man after a distinguished playing career. He is familiar with the business of talking baseball, co-hosting "Baseball Sunday" in 1994 and "Talkin' Brewers" on WTMJ-Radio from 1998-2000. As a part of his work on the 2007 Brewers Preview Show, Schroeder and the FS Wisconsin team were awarded a regional Emmy Award.

For the past seven winters, Schroeder has served as the coordinator of Brewers Fantasy Camp. The camp is always a hit, selling out each year at the Brewers' spring training home in Maryvale, Arizona.

Schroeder spent eight seasons in the big leagues with the Brewers and California Angels, posting a career-best .332 batting average in 1987. He caught Juan Nieves' no-hitter on April 15, 1987 in the midst of the Brewers' Major League record-tying 13-0 start. In addition, he clubbed a career-high 14 home runs and had 42 RBI in a backup role that season. Schroeder was traded to the California Angels following the 1988 campaign before retiring as a player in 1990.

An active member in the community, Schroeder won the Athletes For Youth Good Guy Award in 1988.

Born in Baltimore and raised in Princeton, New Jersey, Schroeder graduated from West Windsor Plainsboro High School, where he earned All-State honors his junior and senior years. He attended Clemson University, leading the Tigers to the Atlantic Coast Conference title in 1978 and 1979.

Schroeder and his wife, Kate, reside in Muskego, Wisconsin. He has two daughters, Lindsey and Mallory, and a son Billy. The couple also has a miniature dachshund named Otis.

CRAIG COSHUN

Craig Coshun begins his 10th season covering the Brewers as a pre-game host and sideline reporter for selected games on FS Wisconsin. Coshun has also filled in as the play-by-play announcer during his time with the team. Following the baseball season, he performs the same duties for the NBA's Milwaukee Bucks.

Coshun is a veteran sportscaster in the state, calling several events for the University of Wisconsin, the Big Ten Network and the ESPN family of networks. He has also handled the WIAA state high school football championships and is a feature writer for Inside Wisconsin Sports Magazine.

As a part of his work on the 2007 Brewers Preview Show, Coshun and the FS Wisconsin team were awarded a regional Emmy Award.

MARYVALE BASEBALL PARK

The Brewers return to Arizona for their 13th spring training at beautiful Maryvale Baseball Park. Considered to be one of the premiere spring complexes, the Brewers are in the midst of a 15-year lease through 2012 which has helped to revitalize the Maryvale neighborhood.

The facility, which opened in 1998, includes 7,000 permanent seats as well as 1,000 lawn seats. The complex features eight fields, including two half-fields. The Brewers minor-league players also train at the Maryvale complex across the parking lot from the Major League facility.

John F. Long, a longtime Valley developer, donated 56 acres of land to make this exceptional complex a reality. With Maricopa County, the Maryvale County Stadium District and the city of Phoenix providing resources, Maryvale Baseball Park is the foundation for future neighborhood development. The Phoenix Parks and Recreation Department oversees the complex's operations.

The primary architect of the ballpark was Ellerbe Beckett of Phoenix, AZ. Their work at Maryvale led to several awards in 1998, including the Architecture Accessiblilty Award from the Mayor's Commission on Disability Issues, the Citation Award from the Arizona Chapter of the American Institute of Architects and the Merit Award from the Western Mountain Region of the American Institute of Architects.
